WHEREAS, the Tennessee General Assembly requires a course of instruction in character education as a part of the general curriculum for all public schools; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this requirement is to develop a program for positive values and improve student conduct, but no specific characteristics or structure of the program are defined; and

WHEREAS, the Congressional Medal of Honor Character Development Program incorporates the ideals of courage and selfless service into the middle and high school curriculum to build character and promote responsible citizenship; and

WHEREAS, the Congressional Medal of Honor Character Development Program uses stories of Medal of Honor recipients as a platform for teaching students about character while they also practice important academic skills, such as writing, critical thinking, analysis of complex texts, and the use of primary and secondary sources in forming an argument; and

WHEREAS, the Congressional Medal of Honor Character Development Program has been endorsed by a number of school systems across this nation; and

WHEREAS, the Congressional Medal of Honor Character Development Program is provided for free, online, and is accessible by any public school, and was developed by school teachers for school teachers by unit and lesson plans; and

WHEREAS, in Tennessee approximately 550 teachers, representing some 200 schools, have already attended formal training on the Congressional Medal of Honor Character Development Program; now, therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 49-6-1007, is amended by adding the following language as a new subsection:

Local education agencies are authorized and encouraged to adopt as their course of instruction in character education the Congressional Medal of Honor Character Development Program. Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 218 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-6-112, is amended by designating the language of subsection (c) as (c)(1) and by adding the following new (c)(2):

(2) A parent is presumed to present a substantial risk of harm to the child if the parent is under indictment for the offense of aggravated child abuse under § 39-15-402, child sexual abuse under § 37-1-602, or severe child sexual abuse under § 36-1-113(g)(11). The parent shall remain a risk of harm during the pendency of the indictment; provided, however, that the court may grant the parent supervised visitation with the child.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 36-6-101, is amended by adding the following new subdivision (v) to subdivision (a)(2)(A):

(v) If prior to awarding joint legal custody, joint physical custody, or sole custody, the court finds one (1) parent is under indictment for the offense of aggravated child abuse under § 39-15-402, child sexual abuse under § 37-1-602, or severe child sexual abuse under § 36-1-113(g)(11), the court shall not award the parent under indictment any type of custody during the pendency of the indictment unless the presumption created by § 36-6-112(c)(2) is overcome; provided, however, that the court may grant the parent supervised visitation with the child. If the court finds that a parent to whom some form of custody has been ordered is indicted for one (1) of the offenses set out in this subdivision

(a)(1)(A)(v), that finding shall constitute a material change in circumstance for the purpose of modifying any existing child custody orders.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2015, the public welfare requiring it and shall apply to persons who are indicted for an applicable offense committed on or after that date.
